

Scholarship Society To Hold Benefit Breakfast

Officers of the Torrance chapter of the American Field Service Scholarship Society will meet tomorrow morning at the home of chapter chairman Mrs. Mervin M. Schwab, 1508 Acacia avenue, to complete plans for a breakfast slated for April 24, at the YWCA.

The breakfast will kick off a drive to raise funds to bring one or more European students to Torrance for a year of high school study, Mrs. Schwab said. Under the scholarship program, public funds are raised to bring the foreign students to America. While studying in American schools, the youngsters stay at the homes of volunteer "foster parents," and attend schools near their residences.

Mrs. Schwab stated that several Torrance families have volunteered to have a foreign student as guest in their home for a school year. She stated that all students brought to America under this plan are high school seniors. She added that any persons interested in aiding with the program may call her at FAirfax 8-1391.

Officers who will meet with the chairman tomorrow are: Mrs. G. C. VanDeventer, first vice-president and home placement chairman; Mrs. Sam Rauss, secretary; Mesdames Willard Keys and J. E. Popovich, co-chairmen of ways and means; Mrs. Dean Sears, treasurer; and Mrs. Evar Janssen, publicity chairman.
